

Army Sustainment Professional Bulletin Subscription Request Form

Unpaid subscriptions to Army Sustainment Professional Bulletin are intended for units and individuals in the sustainment warfighting function or with a valid professional or operational need for the publication. These include sustainment units across the Army, academic institutions, and libraries, as well as joint and multi-national individuals or organizations with a vested interest in U.S. Army sustainment operations. These subscriptions are managed directly by the editorial offices of ASPB. Distribution of printed copies of ASPB to units and individuals is managed and determined based on the professional development needs of the force.

ASPB reserves the authority to approve or deny subscription requests based on the operational and professional development needs of the force.
