Army Materiel Command Goals
(inside back cover)

The mission of ARMY LOGISTICIAN is to provide timely and authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics plans, policies, doctrine, procedures, operations, and developments to the Active Army, Army National Guard, U.S. Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. ARMY LOGISTICIAN is published to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and assist in accomplishing the information objectives of the Department of the Army.

ARMY LOGISTICIAN is an official Department of the Army periodical published bi-monthly at the U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Virginia, under the sponsorship of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations and Logistics), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commanding General, U.S. Army Materiel Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise specified. Material may be reprinted provided credit is given to ARMY LOGISTICIAN and to the author. Opinions expressed by contributors do not necessarily reflect the official viewpoint of the Department of the Army.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any function of U.S. Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, ARMY LOGISTICIAN, U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing this publication was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, 1 October 1973.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint distribution system, as outlined in AR 310-2. Completed DA Form 12-5 must be sent directly to CO, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220.

Army National Guard and U.S. Army Reserve units must submit requirements through their state adjutants general and U.S. Army Reserve channels respectively.

Subscriptions to ARMY LOGISTICIAN are available through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Annual rates are $5.95 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $7.45 for mailing to a foreign address. Individual copies of the magazine are $1.05 each. Checks should be made payable to the Superintendent of Documents.
ARMY MATERIEL COMMAND GOALS

- Improve the readiness of Army combat forces.

- Improve the materiel acquisition process.

- Reduce the cost of Army weapons systems.

- Decentralize operations.

- Improve the quality of the military and civilian workforce.

- Improve the relationship of AMC’s R&D efforts to areas of main concern to the Army.

- Manage and operate with the minimum application of resources—facilities, personnel, dollars.

- Increase the number and grade of minority personnel and women in AMC workforce.

- Improve the working and living environment in AMC.

- Create an atmosphere of challenge and creativeness in AMC.
