ABOUT THE COVER

The cover photo symbolizes the spirit of victory that prevailed at Yorktown 200 years ago when the Union Jack was hauled down, signaling the defeat and capitulation of the British and the certainty of American independence. The article beginning on page 2 reveals the important role that logistics played in that decisive victory. (Cover photo by Ted Spiegel)

Army Logician is devoted to the publication of timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics for the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Our purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to encourage and stimulate innovative thought in areas of logistics by providing a forum for those ideas. The views expressed in the articles are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army.

Army Logician is an official Army periodical published bimonthly and sponsored by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations, Logistics, and Financial Management), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, Army Materiel Development and Readiness Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to Army Logician and the author, except where copyright is indicated.

Use of the third person pronoun “he” and any of its forms, as used in this periodical, is intended to include both masculine and feminine genders. Any exceptions will be indicated in the text.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logician, Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing of this publication was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 1 October 1980 in accordance with AR 310-1.

Active Army units receive distribution under the point system outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to Cdr, AG Publications Center, 2000 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220. Army National Guard and Army Reserve units must submit requirements through State adjutants general or Army Reserve channels.

Annual subscription rates are: $12.00, mailed to a domestic or APO address and $15.00 to a foreign address. Single copy rates are $2.25 domestic and $2.65 foreign. Order through and make checks payable to Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.
Coming in the November-December issue —

Cities Under Siege — admonishes the mineral-dependent industrialized nations — the "cities" of the world — to recognize the potential logistics threat posed by the mineral-rich developing nations.

Village Concept of Combat Service Support — tells of the advantages that can accrue to combat service support units operating from European towns and villages in wartime.

Resupply for Combat — explains how the 29th Area Support Group expects to sustain USAREUR's combat power by rapid resupply from the reserve storage activities.
