COVER—The joint deployment community is engaged in a continuous planning process to solve anticipated mobilization transportation problems. The cover art depicts the land, sea, and air capabilities that will be called on to transport troops and materiel worldwide in the event of mobilization. The story beginning on page 22 explains the planning process.

Army Logistician (ISSN 0004-2528) is published bimonthly by the Editor at the U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044, under the sponsorship of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations and Logistics), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, U.S. Army Materiel Command. Second class official mail postage paid at Petersburg, VA, and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to Editor, Army Logistician, ALMC, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044.

Army Logistician publishes timely, authoritative information on Army and Detece logistics for the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Our purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to encourage and stimulate innovative thought by providing a forum for those ideas. The views expressed are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army. — Photos are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. □ Material may be reprinted if credit is given to the editor and the author, except where copyright is indicated. □ Use of “the” and any of its forms includes both masculine and feminine genders. □ Articles, photographs, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logistician, ALMC, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044; AUTOVON 687-4342, commercial (804) 734-4342. □ Use of funds for printing this publication has been approved by the Secretary of the Army on 19 February 1985, IAW provisions of AR 310-1. □ Active Army units receive copies through the initial distribution system as outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to Commander, AG Publications Center, 2000 Eastern Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21220-2896. ARNG and USAR units must submit requirements through state adjutants general or USAR channels.
