COVER—To rapidly deploy a force largely based in the United States, the Army of the 1990's will rely on airlift and sealift assets. The article beginning on page 2 describes the Army's plans to improve its strategic mobility. (Depiction of the C-17 transport on the cover, courtesy of McDonnell Douglas Corporation.)

Mission: Army Logistician (ISSN 0004-2528) is an official Department of the Army professional bulletin prepared bimonthly at the Army Logistics Management College, Fort Lee, Virginia, and published by Headquarters, U.S. Army Combined Arms Support Command, for the Department of the Army. Its mission is to publish information on Army and Defense logistics plans, programs, policies, operations, procedures, and doctrine that contributes to the professional development of military and civilian logistics personnel.

Disclaimer: Articles express views of the authors, not the Department of Defense or any of its agencies, and do not change or supersede information presented in other official Army publications. The masculine pronoun may refer to both genders.

Submissions: Material on all facets of Army logistics is solicited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logistician, ALMC, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044 (DSN 67-4342 or -2631, commercial (804) 734-4342 or -2631, or FAX DSN 67-2576). Manuscripts on 5 1/4" floppy disk, saved in ASCII or an IBM-compatible word processing system, are requested. Materials may be reprinted provided credit is given to Army Logistician and to the author(s), except when copyright is indicated.

Postmasters: Send address changes to Editor, Army Logistician, ALMC, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044. Second-class postage paid at Petersburg, Virginia, and additional mailing offices. Army Logistician is approved for public release; distribution is unlimited.

Have you missed seeing an issue or two of Army Logistician? Some of you have because your initial distribution copies were returned for insufficient address. A large number of Active Army and Reserve component units had their copies returned because the address was a Southwest Asia APO and the units have returned to their home stations. Military units must keep the Army Publications Distribution Center-Baltimore informed of a valid mailing address if they are to receive their requested publications. Army Logistician is distributed by the Distribution Center, just as Army regulations, field manuals, and other official publications are distributed. Consequently, a DA Form 12-R, Request for Establishment of a Publications Account, section III (change of address), must be completed and filed with the Distribution Center to change the unit mailing address.

Information on ordering and managing your Army publications can be found in Department of the Army Pamphlet 25-33, The Standard Army Publications System (STARPUB) Revision of the DA 12-Series Forms, Usage, and Procedures. Information about specific publications, including Army Logistician, and the codes to be entered on the DA 12-series forms are found in DA Pamphlet 25-30, Consolidated Index of Army Publications and Blank Forms.

Ensure that your unit doesn’t miss another issue. Ask your unit publications control officer to file DA Form 12-99-R for your initial distribution of Army Logistician or file DA Form 12-R to correct your unit mailing address.

Individual and Private Subscriptions: Those who desire copies of Army Logistician but do not receive copies through initial distribution may obtain individual, private subscriptions from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office. As a convenience to subscribers, the Superintendent of Documents has provided the order form printed below. Current subscribers are reminded that changes of address must be sent to—
